

Mountain

Rough seas might pull me under, and
Dark clouds might dim my days
But there's always bright tomorrows when
I close my eyes and say
"Remember how you've made it through the fire?
Remember how you've come so far?
An unstoppable force of nature
Yeah, that's what you are"

(Ooh)

I know all that I have lost
Has given me the purpose of
Conquering my pain through love
I sing this hymn to rise above

I am a mountain, and down in the valley below
Is all that I've overcome, all that I've overcome, whoa
I am a mountain, and down in the valley below
Is all that I've overcome, all that I've oh-oh-overcome, oh
Oh-oh-overcome, oh
I'm a fighter, it's like I was born to be one

Whatever life may throw, I'll pass the test
Whatever fate might dream upon me next
I'll stand with my head to the sky
Unshaken by thunder and winds and the tide

I know all that I have lost
Has given me the purpose of
Conquering my pain through love
I sing this hymn to rise above

I am a mountain and down in the valley below
Is all that I've overcome, all that I've overcome, whoa
I am a mountain and down in the valley below
Is all that I've overcome, all that I've oh-oh-overcome, oh
Oh-oh-overcome
Whoa

I am a mountain, and down in the valley below
Is all that I've overcome, all that I've overcome, whoa
I am a mountain, and down in the valley below
Is all that I've overcome
All that I've, oh-oh-overcome, oh, oh
Oh-oh-overcome, oh, oh
Oh-oh-overcome, oh, oh
Oh-oh-overcome
I'm a fighter, it's like I was born to be one
